I support keeping LPFM noncommercial. Stations like Riverwest Radio offer essential local programming and rely on protections designed for community broadcasts. Reclassifying LPFM would jeopardize their survival. Please protect the structure that keeps true community radio in place. So many listeners depend on this and enjoy it. It’s a wonderful resource for our community.